

Ms. Wang Chieh-yu (Jessica)

M.A. in Mass Communication, University of Leicester, U.K.

B.A. in English Language and Literature, Providence University, Taiwan

January 2021 until July 2024	Assistant Director and Subject Matter Specialist (Mandarin)	Rastriya Raksha University, Gandhinagar, Gujarat
September 2019 to July 2020	Senior Language Instructor	Chitkara University Chandigarh, Punjab
September 2017 to May 2019	The Language Instructor	Language training project of Government of India, New Delhi
March 2015 until July 2017	Senior Language Instructor	Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi
April 2012 to March 2015	Program Director, Senior Language Instructor & Language Instructor	Amity University, Noida.

Achievements:

- ✓ While Ms. Wang serves in the Rastriya Raksha University, she drafted a five-year syllabus for B.A. plus M.A. program. It is the first five-year Mandarin program syllabus in India composed by a Mandarin native speaker in the current century. The said University has applied this syllabus to its government personnel training programs since 2011.
- ✓ Ms. Wang is also co-authoring the Mandarin textbooks “Incredible India” and “Business Mandarin Chinese for Indian Learners”, both are the projects of the Ministry of Education, Taiwan.
- ✓ Before devoting her time to Mandarin education, she was the News Desk Convenor of International News Centre from July 2011 to March 2012 in CTI Television Incorporation, Taipei, Taiwan
- ✓ Deputy Group Leader of International News Centre from November 2002 to June 2011 in the AppleDaily, Taipei, Taiwan.

In her decade of teaching career in India, Ms. Wang has taught and trained around 1,000 students across varied disciplines from higher education students, private sector employees to in-service personnel of public sectors.